

Anishnawbe Health Toronto

Our mission: to improve the health and wellbeing of Aboriginal People in spirit, mind, emotion and body by providing Traditional Healing within a multidisciplinary health care model.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY Clinical Counselor, Diabetes Education Program

Full Time Continuing Position

Anishnawbe Health Toronto, a fully accredited community health centre, offers access to health care practitioners from many disciplines including Traditional Healers, Elders and Medicine People. The Oshkii Okitchiidak Counsellors engage children and youth in individual and group based counselling, circles and activities.

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Provide counselling services and supports to individuals, groups, and families
- Assist clients in identifying issues and set counselling goals both short-term and long-term
- Integrate Traditional teachings and Traditional knowledge sharing, to strengthen Indigenous identity and capacity
- Determine appropriate interventions in consultation with client, and other care providers at AHT
- Perform chart reviews and attend case conferences
- Create safe, inclusive and welcoming space
- Manage a case load set by organizational standards
- Charting on daily basis and report writing Quarterly and annually

Qualifications & Experience:

- BSW and/or MSW or an acceptable equivalent combination of education and experience
- Required to learn about Aboriginal culture, history, traditions, medicines and healing approaches
- Knowledge of Aboriginal culture, traditions, teachings and ceremonies; Aboriginal language skills an asset
- An understanding of the social determinants of health and other issues relevant to Aboriginal communities in Toronto; respect for Traditional Healing
- Strong understanding of professional ethics, including consent, confidentiality and boundaries
- Ability to work collaboratively as part of a multidisciplinary team

- Thorough understanding of issues affecting and influencing Aboriginal children/youth and their families/caregivers and community living in an urban setting
- Written skills and computer proficiency, including skill with word processing, presentations and electronic charting software

How to Apply: Please submit your cover letter and resume by email to recruitment@aht.ca, in a single document, with your name and " Clinical Counsellor, Diabetes Education" in the subject line. If you have questions about the process, please call 416-920-2605 x.332

Closing date: Position will remain open until filled

Anishnawbe Health Toronto offers a competitive salary, a comprehensive benefits package, a commitment to your professional development and a supportive workplace environment.

Applicants who self-identify as Aboriginal and meet the requirements of the job posting will be given first consideration in the hiring process

Anishnawbe Health Toronto is committed to diversity and values the contribution of its employees from diverse backgrounds and experiences. We welcome applications from Aboriginal persons, visible minority group members, women, and persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who contribute to greater diversity of perspectives.

(If you are invited for an interview and require accommodation, please let us know)
Meegwetch to all applicants, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.