EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Psychometrist

Part-Time Position

Are you interested in working in the urban Indigenous community? Anishnawbe Health Toronto is a fully accredited community health centre offering access to health care for Indigenous people living in the GTA. With Indigenous culture and tradition at its core, AHT offers a full range of services and healthcare providers, including Traditional Healers, Medicine People, primary care and mental health practitioners, and service providers focusing on the social determinants of health. We provide care from a blended model of Traditional and Western approaches to improve our clients' wellbeing. As the Psychometrist, you will be in proximity to Traditional Healers and Traditional knowledge carriers, where you will engage in consultation and learn cultural approaches to healing and wellness.

Duties & Responsibilities:

The psychometrist will report to the Manager of the Primary Care Unit and will provide psychological testing, scoring, and consult with AHT FASD team members as authorized and under the supervision of the neuropsychologist.

- Provide the agency with in-house psychometric assessment capacity using psychometric instruments and clinical assessment skills, under the supervision of a neuropsychologist.
- Provide the agency with personal and parental capacity assessment supports which aid in early decision-making and assessments.
- Administer, score and interpret psychometric instruments.

- Provide consultation with peers regarding psychological methods and findings.
- Liaise with educational authorities as required.
- Complete timely and quality documentation in the EMR.
- Effective consultation with Traditional Healers, and social work, physician, speech pathologist and neuropsychologist team members concerning new referrals and assessment process, in both written and verbal communication.
- Demonstrated initiative regarding the quantitative impact of findings.

Qualifications, Skills & Experience:

- Bachelor's degree in psychology/health sciences/statistics
- Current certificate of registration with Ontario Association of Mental Health Professionals (OAMHP) in good standing
- Extensive psychometric evaluation background - academic and experiential education with a focus on children ages 4 to 18.
- knowledge of various objective and specialized tests, and their appropriate selection, administration, utilization and interpretation
- Determine the nature of psychological dysfunction using objective and psychological tests, and their interpretation within broadly-based guidelines
- Ability to determine, develop and recommend appropriate treatment and rehabilitative programs
- Ability to monitor and recommend changes to treatment programs, and coordinate referral to other programs and services

Why Choose Anishnawbe Health?

AHT offers a competitive salary and comprehensive benefits package. As the Psychometrist, you will be a member of a multidisciplinary team including but not limited to psychiatry, Traditional Healers, counsellors, Two Spirit Trans services, primary care, Rapid Access Addiction Medicine, Housing Supports, and programming for children and youth. All services are delivered from a newly developed location in Toronto's Canary District.
