

Anishnawbe Health Toronto

Our mission: to improve the health and wellbeing of Aboriginal People in spirit, mind, emotion, and body by providing Traditional Healing within a multidisciplinary health care model.

Nurse Practitioner (RNEC)

6 Months Contract Position

Are you interested in working in the urban Indigenous community? Anishnawbe Health Toronto is a fully accredited community health center offering access to health care for Indigenous people living in the GTA. With Indigenous culture and tradition at its core, AHT offers a full range of services and healthcare providers, including Traditional Healers, Medicine People, primary care and mental health practitioners, and service providers focusing on the social determinants of health. We provide care from a blended model of Traditional and Western approaches to improve our clients' wellbeing. As the Nurse Practitioner (RNEC), you will be in proximity to Traditional Healers and Traditional knowledge carriers, where you will engage in consultation and learn cultural approaches to healing and wellness.

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Provides client-centered comprehensive primary and episodic health care, as outlined and appropriate within the Extended Class scope of practice.
- Facilitates discussions with clients to determine existing and potential health concerns with a focus on related lifestyle, psychological and environmental risk factors and assessments, to stabilize and improve client's health status.
- Provides advanced nursing care and treatment; monitors ongoing therapy of patients; implements strategies to promote independent and healthy lifestyles.
- Works within established care pathways, medical directives, guidelines and protocols.

- Orders appropriate investigations and interprets results of screening and diagnostic laboratory tests; determines need for diagnostic imaging, and orders and interprets reports.
- Consults with Traditional Healers when indicated and is willing to learn about Traditional approaches to health and wellbeing.
- Works independently and collaboratively with members of the interdisciplinary team, consulting with physicians and other health care professionals when client's condition is beyond the RN(EC) scope of practice
- Performs other related duties as required.

Qualifications & Experience

- BScN and membership in good standing with the College of Nurses of Ontario, as an RN with Extended Class
- At least 3 years of experience working as a Nurse Practitioner in the extended role in a community-based setting.
- Extensive knowledge of clinical best practices for the care and treatment of clients with complex medical and co-morbid conditions.
- Knowledge and experience with mental health care is an asset but willingness to learn is critical.
- Excellent communication and relationship building skills
- Proven ability to encourage contribution and create an environment in which others have the confidence and opportunity to contribute.
- Commitment to working cooperatively in a community-based setting as part of an interdisciplinary team; ability to collaborate within and across internal and external systems playing a vital role in the delivery of services

Why Choose Anishnawbe Health?
