

Anishnawbe Health Toronto

Our mission: to improve the health and wellbeing of Aboriginal People in spirit, mind, emotion, and body by providing Traditional Healing within a multidisciplinary health care model.

Waash-Keshuu-Yaan Case Worker

Full-Time Continuing Position

Are you interested in working in the urban Indigenous community? Anishnawbe Health Toronto is a fully accredited community health center offering access to health care for Indigenous people living in the GTA. With Indigenous culture and tradition at its core, AHT offers a full range of services and healthcare providers, including Traditional Healers, Medicine People, primary care and mental health practitioners, and service providers focusing on the social determinants of health. We provide care from a blended model of Traditional and Western approaches to improve our clients' wellbeing. As the Waash-Keshuu-Yaan Case Worker, you will be in proximity to Traditional Healers and Traditional knowledge carriers, where you will engage in consultation and learn cultural approaches to healing and wellness.

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Utilize compelling case management and advocacy skills
- Extensive knowledge of community resources is required, including experience with systems and processes involved in mental health supports, income supports, legal matters, education and training as well as housing
- Work collaboratively with primary care practitioners to support follow-up on care plans for clients across the life span. Case management will include accompaniments, assessment, and internal as well as external referrals
- Competency in facilitating and leading care service planning and service delivery that utilizes Aboriginal culture, history, values, and beliefs

- Provide individual and/or group counseling to support community members with mental health concerns
- Perform other related duties as assigned

Required Education, Skills & Experience

- BSW and/or MSW Degree
- Registration with the OCSWSSW
- Strong understanding of counselling ethics, including consent, confidentiality, and boundaries
- Knowledge of community resources and supports in the Toronto area
- Excellent clinical skills including individual and group counselling using trauma-informed practice
- Ability to work collaboratively as part of a multidisciplinary team
- Written skill and computer proficiency including skill with word processing, presentations, and electronic charting software

Why Choose Anishnawbe Health?

AHT offers a competitive salary and comprehensive benefits package. As the Waash-Keshuu-Yaan Case Worker, you will be a member of a multidisciplinary team including but not limited to psychiatry, Traditional Healers, counsellors, Two Spirit Trans services, primary care, Rapid Access Addiction Medicine, Housing Supports, and programming for children and youth. All services are delivered from a newly developed location in Toronto's Canary District.

How to Apply: Ready to embark on a rewarding journey with Anishnawbe Health? Submit your cover letter and resume by email to recruitment@aht.ca as a single document to become an integral part of a team committed to holistic health and a strong community.

Position will remain open until filled

Applicants who are Indigenous and meet the requirements of the job posting will be given first consideration in the hiring process.

Anishnawbe Health Toronto is committed to diversity and values the contribution of its employees from diverse backgrounds and experiences. We welcome applications from Indigenous persons, visible minority group members, women, and persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who contribute to greater diversity of perspectives.

(If you are invited for an interview and require accommodation, please let us know)
Meegwetch to all applicants, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.