

Anishnawbe Health Toronto

Our mission: to improve the health and wellbeing of Aboriginal People in spirit, mind, emotion, and body by providing Traditional Healing within a multidisciplinary health care model.

Registered Nurse, Mobile Unit

Part-time Contract Position

Are you interested in working in the urban Indigenous community? Anishnawbe Health Toronto is a fully accredited community health center offering access to health care for Indigenous people living in the GTA. With Indigenous culture and tradition at its core, AHT offers a full range of services and healthcare providers, including Traditional Healers, Medicine People, primary care and mental health practitioners, and service providers focusing on the social determinants of health. We provide care from a blended model of Traditional and Western approaches to improve our clients' wellbeing. As the Registered Nurse, Mobile Unit you will be in proximity to Traditional Healers and Traditional knowledge carriers, where you will engage in consultation and learn cultural approaches to healing and wellness.

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Move within various community locations as part of the Mobile Health Unit team
- Set up and manage the mobile clinic environment, ensuring all necessary equipment and supplies are available and properly maintained
- Participate in case conferences and multidisciplinary team meetings
- Works within established care pathways, medical directives, guidelines and protocols.
- Conduct comprehensive assessments of patients' health, including medical history, physical examinations, and vital signs.
- Work collaboratively with other healthcare professionals, including doctors, nurses, chiropractors, and traditional healers, to ensure holistic care

- Provide wound care, chronic disease management, and other nursing interventions
- Consults with Traditional Healers when indicated and is willing to learn about Traditional approaches to health and wellbeing.
- Administer medications, treatments, and vaccinations as prescribed
- Provide practical advice on daily foot care routines, proper footwear, and preventive measures to avoid foot complications
- Performs other related duties as required
- Develop and facilitate health promotion communication and education

Qualifications & Experience

- BScN and membership in good standing with the College of Nurses of Ontario, as an RN with Extended Class
- At least 3 years of experience working as a Registered Nurse in a community-based setting.
- Extensive knowledge of clinical best practices for the care and treatment of clients with complex medical and co-morbid conditions.
- Knowledge and experience with mental health care is an asset but willingness to learn is critical.
- Excellent communication and relationship building skills
- Proven ability to encourage contribution and create an environment in which others have the confidence and opportunity to contribute.
- Commitment to working cooperatively in a community-based setting as part of an interdisciplinary team; ability to collaborate within and across internal and external systems playing a vital role in the delivery of services

Why Choose Anishnawbe Health?

AHT offers a competitive salary and comprehensive benefits package. As the Registered Nurse, Mobile Unit, you will be a member of a multidisciplinary team including but not limited to psychiatry, Traditional Healers, counsellors, Two Spirit Trans services, primary care, Rapid Access Addiction Medicine, Housing Supports, and programming for children and youth. All services are delivered from a newly developed location in Toronto's Canary District.
