

Anishnawbe Health Toronto

Our mission: to improve the health and wellbeing of Aboriginal People in spirit, mind, emotion, and body by providing Traditional Healing within a multidisciplinary health care model.

Chiroprapist

Part-time Contract Position

Are you interested in working in the urban Indigenous community? Anishnawbe Health Toronto is a fully accredited community health center offering access to health care for Indigenous people living in the GTA. With Indigenous culture and tradition at its core, AHT offers a full range of services and healthcare providers, including Traditional Healers, Medicine People, primary care and mental health practitioners, and service providers focusing on the social determinants of health. We provide care from a blended model of Traditional and Western approaches to improve our clients' wellbeing. As the Chiroprapist you will be in proximity to Traditional Healers and Traditional knowledge carriers, where you will engage in consultation and learn cultural approaches to healing and wellness.

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Set up and manage the mobile clinic environment, ensuring all necessary equipment and supplies are available and properly maintained.
- Provide chiroprapy services not only in the health centre, but also within various community locations as part of the Mobile Health Unit team.
- Conduct thorough assessments of patients' foot health, including medical history and physical examination.
- Assess foot and lower limb conditions and make follow-up referrals.
- Stabilize wounds for transport.
- Provide routine care, including nail care.

- Educate patients on proper foot care practices and preventive measures.
- Provide guidance on footwear and lifestyle adjustments to improve foot health.
- Work collaboratively with other healthcare professionals, including doctors, nurses, and traditional healers, to ensure holistic care.
- Provide educational sessions and workshops to community members.

Qualifications & Experience

- Active and valid registration with the College of Chiropractors of Ontario.
- Three to five years working in a Community Health Setting.
- Demonstrated ability to work independently or in a multi-disciplinary health services team.
- Excellent written, oral and communication skills.
- Knowledge and experience working in Indigenous Communities and understanding of the social determinants of Health within that community is an asset.

Why Choose Anishnawbe Health?

AHT offers a competitive salary and comprehensive benefits package. As the Chiropractor, you will be a member of a multidisciplinary team including but not limited to psychiatry, Traditional Healers, counselors, Two Spirit Trans services, primary care, Rapid Access Addiction Medicine, Housing Supports, and programming for children and youth. All services are delivered from a newly developed location in Toronto's Canary District.

How to Apply: Ready to embark on a rewarding journey with Anishnawbe Health? Submit your cover letter and resume by email to recruitment@eht.ca as a single document to become an integral part of a team committed to holistic health and a strong community.

Position will remain open until filled

Applicants who are Indigenous and meet the requirements of the job posting will be given first consideration in the hiring process.

Anishnawbe Health Toronto is committed to diversity and values the contribution of its employees from diverse backgrounds and experiences. We welcome applications from Indigenous persons, visible minority group members, women, and persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who contribute to greater diversity of perspectives.

(If you are invited for an interview and require accommodation, please let us know)
Meegwetch to all applicants, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.